

FULL WHOLENESS PASTORAL CARE COURSE ETHICS

I _____ am aware that the training offered by EDIFY-BUILDING THE SOUL falls under certain boundaries which I am willing to abide by, signing of this document is my agreement.

1. The Full Wholeness Pastoral Care Course is merely a biblical “framework” aiding those having pastoral conversations to navigate the complexities of people’s stories whilst helping point people back to a right relationship with God.
2. This training does NOT qualify me to set up my own private practice as a Professional or Pastoral Counselor under any circumstances.
3. EDIFY does NOT advocate formally charging anyone under the umbrella of pastoral care, as this course does not provide one with a formalized recognized qualification.
4. EDIFY does encourage all who wish to engage in formal pastoral care conversations, to be a part of their local church’s formal pastoral care team.
5. EDIFY does encourage all who serve on their local church’s formal pastoral care team to attend a basic up-to-date ethics course annually.
6. EDIFY does encourage all those who serve on their local church’s formal pastoral care team to attend regular group supervision and to attend on-going development courses.
7. EDIFY does encourage all who serve on their local church’s formal pastoral care team to work in pairs, therefore enabling accountability, mentorship, safety around boundaries, and the elimination of potential co-dependency.
8. EDIFY does NOT take responsibility for how any of “The Wholeness Training” may be applied outside of EDIFY’s consent, knowledge, or supervision after completion thereof.
